

“The God of the 2nd Chance” Jeremiah 18:1-6

Jeremiah 18 describes the work of a _____ who is trying to make something useful out of a lump of _____. As we observe this potter working on the clay, we discover how God _____ in our lives.

1. How the Clay Was _____. 18:2-3

- A. The Potter Represents _____. 18:6
- B. The Clay Represents _____. 18:6
- C. The Wheel Represents the Daily _____ of Life. 18:3

Failure is not always the result of _____ but sometimes we feel like a failure because we have sinned and run away from God’s _____.

2. How the Clay was _____. 18:4.

- A. The Clay May Have Had a Hidden _____.
- B. The Clay May Have Become Too _____.

3. How the Clay was _____. 18:4

The potter took the _____ piece of clay, started all over again, and made a brand new _____. He gave it a _____ chance. Someone said, “God can mend a broken life, but only if you give Him all the _____.”

Franklin Graham is an example of a man who lived in _____ against God’s will. Eventually Franklin put his life on the potter’s _____ and God was able to make something _____ out of it.

Transformed Clay Wheel God Beautiful Potter
Will Second Deformed Pot Rebellion Flaw Us
Works Pieces Hard Events Formed Same Sin