“Lord Give Me Patience...and Give It Now”

James 5:7-11

James explains that we all need _____ because we all face _____ in life. The word patience means “to maintain _____ while going through difficult circumstances.”

James points out 3 areas in which God _____ us to be patient:

1. Patient toward the _____ Coming. 5:7-8

James compares believers to a _____ who has no control over the _____. A farmer must trust _____ to control the circumstances he _____ control.

Just as the Lord’s _____ of the weather is perfect, His timing of the 2nd Coming is also _____.

2. Patient toward the _____. 5:9

Sometimes even good _____ people who face difficult circumstances are tempted to _____ about their fellow church members. James reminds us that Jesus is standing at the _____ listening and will _____ those who cause division.

3. Patient toward _____. 5:10-11

The _____ patiently endured suffering even though they suffered for doing what was _____. Job was the most _____ man in the world, yet he suffered.

We can be patient in the midst of suffering because we know God will bring something _____ out of even the worst situation.

Thank You

I want to say thank you to those who helped take care of Joseph Manning, our guest evangelist, during the Spring Revival. I'm grateful to Randy and Candice Moore who opened their home to provide accommodations for Joseph and also prepared several meals for him during the week. I also want to thank others who provided meals for Joseph and myself during the week: Marilyn McDaniel, Roy and Velena Harley, Chris and Donna Short, John and Pam Marks, Carman Coulter, and those who brought food for the Senior Adult Banquet. Joseph really enjoyed his time here at Sand Spring and he improved greatly as a preacher during this week of revival.
