

“Is It OK To Be Angry With God?”

Psalm 13:1-6

Christian Counselor Jay Adams says, “Anger is a problem for _____ Christian; _____ anger probably is involved in _____% of all counseling problems.” People become angry at _____ as the result of _____ in their life. Something terrible happens and they _____ God for it. You can be a _____ Christian and still get angry with God.

There are 3 _____ we learn about anger toward God in Psalm 13.

1. _____ of Anger Toward God. 13:1-2

- A. You Don't _____ About Me. 13:1
- B. I Don't _____ You. 13:2
- C. My Life Will Never Get _____. 13:2
- D. You Let People _____ Me. 13:2

2. Steps to _____ Anger Toward God. 13:3-4.

- A. Remember God's _____ for Anger. 1 Peter 5:7
- B. Remember that God is _____. Deuteronomy 32:4
- C. Remember Why _____ Things Happen. John 16:33

3. _____ Against Anger Toward God. 13:5-6

- A. I _____ You. 13:5
- B. I _____ You. 13:6

Earlier David said, “God has not treated me _____.” Now he says, “God has given me far _____ than I deserve.”

Symptoms God Right Hurt Faithful Better 90 Remedy
Safeguards Understand Praise Sinful Lessons Bad Tragedy
Blame Perfect Overcome Trust More Every Care