“How to Handle a Hopeless Situation”

1 Kings 17:8-16

In 1 Kings 17, God sent Elijah to visit a _____ in the city of Zarephath. When Elijah met this woman, he discovered she had only enough food to provide one final _____ for herself and her _____.

1 Kings 17 reveals 3 things we must do when faced with a _____ situation:

1. Put _____ First. 17:12-14

After Elijah listened to this woman’s sad story, he made what sounds like a very _____ request (17:13). Elijah was _____ this woman to see if she would put God _____.

So often we _____ on our circumstances instead of on the God who _____ our circumstances (Heb 12:2). Faith calls on us to _____ the unthinkable that we might receive the impossible!

2. Make the Best of What You _____. 17:15-16

God didn’t give this widow a _____ jar of flour, He expected her to use the one she had. You should not expect God to _____ you if you won’t help _____. This woman kept using what she had and she found that what she had was _____.

3. Trust God One _____ at a Time. 17:16

God performed a _____ in that jar of flour and in that jug of _____ every single day. God does not always give us everything we _____, but He will see to it we have everything we _____.
