

“God’s Way to Deal With Anger”

Proverbs 29:11

Proverbs 29:11 describes 2 different ways people respond to _____. You can _____ anger to control you, or you can learn to _____ your anger.

1. The Proper _____ of Anger.

The dictionary defines anger as “A strong emotion of displeasure caused by a sense of _____ or insult.”

- A. Anger is a _____ Emotion.
- B. Anger is a _____ Emotion.
- C. Anger is a _____ Emotion.

2. The Proper _____ for Anger.

The Bible tells us _____ gets angry, but He always gets angry for the _____ reason. God’s motive for anger is to _____ sinful behavior.

The story of Jonah illustrates how God’s anger resulted in a great _____. Anger is not meant to be _____, but constructive.

3. The Proper _____ to Anger.

- A. Restrain Your _____ Response. James 1:19-20
- B. Locate the _____ of Your Anger.
- C. Consider Your Options.
 - 1) Lovingly _____ the Person. Luke 17:3
 - 2) _____ the Matter. Proverbs 19:11

Anger is too _____ for us to handle on our own. We need God’s _____ to control it (Galatians 5:22).

Immediate Motive Powerful Revival Overlook Help Correct
Mysterious Anger Response Confront Injury Universal God
Control Right Understanding Focus Destructive Strong Allow