

“The Parable of the Dragnet”
Matthew 13:47-50

The final parable in Matthew 13 is “The Parable of the _____.” The dragnet was used to catch _____. In this parable, the fish represent 2 groups of _____, the sea represents a world of lost _____, the net represents the _____ message and the fishermen represent _____ who are trying to share their faith

1. The _____ of the Gospel. 13:47

Jesus sometimes used fishing as an illustration of _____ the gospel (Mt 4:19, Luke 5:4-10). The fishermen do 2 things with the net: they let it _____ and then they _____ it up on shore.

All 3 members of the _____ are involved in drawing people to salvation (John 6:44, John 12:32, John 16:8).

2. The _____ of the Fish. 13:48

There are 2 types of fish. Some are _____; others are thrown back. At the end of the age, those who are _____ will be separated from those who are _____. The parables of Matthew 13 remind us that not everybody will make it to _____.

3. The _____ of the Lost. 13:49-50

This parable describes what will take place at the end of the _____. The wicked will be separated from the _____.

The judgment Jesus describes here is probably the judgment of the _____ and Goats described in Matthew 25. According to Matthew 13:49, the _____ will assist in this judgment.

Age Trinity Sheep Pull People Destination
Gospel Christians Down Saved Dragnet Angels
Presentation Keepers Separation Righteous
Sinners Heaven Fish Sharing Lost

“The Parable of the Dragnet”
Matthew 13:47-50

The final parable in Matthew 13 is “The Parable of the _____.” The dragnet was used to catch _____. In this parable, the fish represent 2 groups of _____, the sea represents a world of lost _____, the net represents the _____ message and the fishermen represent _____ who are trying to share their faith

1. The _____ of the Gospel. 13:47

Jesus sometimes used fishing as an illustration of _____ the gospel (Mt 4:19, Luke 5:4-10). The fishermen do 2 things with the net: they let it _____ and then they _____ it up on shore.

All 3 members of the _____ are involved in drawing people to salvation (John 6:44, John 12:32, John 16:8).

2. The _____ of the Fish. 13:48

There are 2 types of fish. Some are _____; others are thrown back. At the end of the age, those who are _____ will be separated from those who are _____. The parables of Matthew 13 remind us that not everybody will make it to _____.

3. The _____ of the Lost. 13:49-50

This parable describes what will take place at the end of the _____. The wicked will be separated from the _____.

The judgment Jesus describes here is probably the judgment of the _____ and Goats described in Matthew 25. According to Matthew 13:49, the _____ will assist in this judgment.

Age Trinity Sheep Pull People Destination
Gospel Christians Down Saved Dragnet Angels
Presentation Keepers Separation Righteous
Sinners Heaven Fish Sharing Lost