

“The 5th Commandment”
Exodus 20:12

The 5th Commandment deals with the relationship of _____ and children. Your child’s _____ toward God is a reflection of _____ attitude toward God. There are 5 ways to _____ your parents.

1. Respect Them. Exodus 20:12

The word honor comes from a word that means “to be _____.” To honor our parents means to consider them very _____ and _____ of respect.

2. Obey Them. Ephesians 6:1-3

Luke 2:51 says Jesus showed respect for his _____ by being _____ to them. Some teenagers see no need to obey their parents because they consider themselves much _____ than their mother and father. God expects you to obey your parents unless they _____ you to do something _____ to the will of God. ,

3. Appreciate Them. 1 Timothy 5:4

As you get older, God wants you to _____ your parents for all they have _____ for you.

4. Forgive Them. Psalm 27:10

Some of you have been _____ by your parents. You may have to be _____ to forgive them before you can honor them.

5. Care for Them. Proverbs 23:22

You will never reach a certain _____ at which it is OK to disrespect your parents.

Obey Honor Care Parents Respect Appreciate Worthy
Contrary Forgive Parents Age Heavy Repay Mistreated
Obedient Ask Attitude Important Smarter Willing Done