

“The 1st Commandment”
Exodus 20:1-3

God has made His _____ very clear and very simple. He has given us 10 _____ rules to obey. Those 10 commands are the key to a _____ and successful life.

One reason many object to the 10 Commandments is that they reject the _____ of the one who gave the commandments. The commandments of God are based on His _____. As we obey His laws we become more _____ Him.

There are 3 types of laws in the Old Testament: The _____ Law, The _____ Law and The _____ Law. The first two aspects of the law were _____ by Jesus (Col 2:16-17, Heb 10:1). New Testament believers are not governed by the Mosaic law but by the law of _____ (1 Cor 9:21). God’s moral law is still relevant today because it describes the conduct God expects of all _____ at all _____.

We can divide this 1st Commandment in 3 sections.

1. God Makes a _____ . Ex 20:2

- A. He Declares His _____.
- B. He Declares His _____.
- C. He Declares His _____.

2. God Issues a _____ . Ex 20:3

He says, “You are to have no Gods _____ than me.”

3. God Offers an _____ . Ex 20:3

It is not enough just to know that God _____. You and I must decide whether or not the one true God will become _____ God.
