

“The Good News of Easter”
Luke 24:1-12

The resurrection of Jesus completely changes ones’ attitude toward _____ and the grave (Phil 1:21). For the Christian, death is not something to _____; it is actually something we can _____ forward to. Luke 24 declares the good _____ of Easter.

Luke points out 3 facts _____ by the resurrection of Jesus.

1. God’s _____ is Alive. 24:1-6

Early on Sunday morning, a group of _____ went to anoint the body of Jesus. Obviously, they did not _____ in the resurrection. When they arrived at the tomb, they discovered that the stone had already been _____ away. 2 angels explained what happened to the _____ of Jesus - He had been raised back to _____ again. The resurrection proves that Jesus truly is the Son of _____.

2. God’s _____ is True. 24:6-8

Jesus had _____ his resurrection several times (Luke 9:22, 18:31-33). If the disciples had listened to Jesus, they would never have come to a _____ looking for Him.

3. God’s _____ is Available. 24:9-12

The message of the resurrection is not something to keep to yourself; it is something to _____ with others.

Jesus rose from the dead to complete the _____ of redemption (Rom 4:25, 1 Cor 15:17).

The greatest _____ of the resurrection of Jesus is the changed lives of his followers. They went from _____ to gladness (Luke 24:51-53).
