

“Beware of the Green Eyed Monster”
Proverbs 27:4

Shakespeare referred to _____ as "the green-eyed monster." It was jealousy that put Jesus on the _____ (Matt 27:18). It was also jealousy that caused the first _____. We can overcome jealousy if we use the right _____.

1. Confront the _____ of Jealousy.

Jealousy is a real problem that everyone must _____ and everyone must _____ at some time or another.

One reason we have such a problem with jealousy is that we tend to _____ ourselves with others. We also _____ that there are multitudes whose circumstances are _____ than ours.

2. Consider the _____ of Jealousy.

Proverbs 14:30 describes jealousy as a _____ that will rot you from the _____ out. God commands us in Romans 12:15 to “_____ with those who rejoice and _____ with those who mourn.”

3. Conquer the _____ of Jealousy.

The key to _____ the green-eyed monster is found in Philippians 4:11. We must learn to be content with _____ we are and with _____ God has given us.

When someone asks _____ Ramsey how he is doing, he always answers “Better than I _____.”

Rejoice Jealousy Deserve Fight Cancer Worse Problem
What Strategy Poison Mourn Face Who Murder
Inside Dave Compare Power Cross Forget Overcome

“Beware of the Green Eyed Monster”
Proverbs 27:4

Shakespeare referred to _____ as "the green-eyed monster." It was jealousy that put Jesus on the _____ (Matt 27:18). It was also jealousy that caused the first _____. We can overcome jealousy if we use the right _____.

1. Confront the _____ of Jealousy.

Jealousy is a real problem that everyone must _____ and everyone must _____ at some time or another.

One reason we have such a problem with jealousy is that we tend to _____ ourselves with others. We also _____ that there are multitudes whose circumstances are _____ than ours.

2. Consider the _____ of Jealousy.

Proverbs 14:30 describes jealousy as a _____ that will rot you from the _____ out. God commands us in Romans 12:15 to “_____ with those who rejoice and _____ with those who mourn.”

3. Conquer the _____ of Jealousy.

The key to _____ the green-eyed monster is found in Philippians 4:11. We must learn to be content with _____ we are and with _____ God has given us.

When someone asks _____ Ramsey how he is doing, he always answers “Better than I _____.”

Rejoice Jealousy Deserve Fight Cancer Worse Problem
What Strategy Poison Mourn Face Who Murder
Inside Dave Compare Power Cross Forget Overcome