

“Jesus Prays for Himself”
John 17:1-5

One of the top priorities in the life of Jesus was _____. You might call this the “_____ Lord’s Prayer.” It was given on the night Jesus was _____, somewhere between the Upper Room and the Garden of Gethsemane.

This prayer is significant for 4 reasons. 1) Because of the _____ who prayed it. 2) Because of the occasion that demanded it. 3) Because of the _____ it makes. 4) Because it still _____ today.

This prayer can be divided in 3 sections. Jesus prays for Himself, for His _____, and for us. When Jesus prays for _____, He makes 3 requests:

1. Let Me _____ the Work of Redemption. 17:1

The “time” (or hour) Jesus mentions is the time in which He would accomplish _____. Jesus lived His life according to a divine _____. We need to remember that God’s timing is always _____. Jesus was looking forward to the hour, because He knew that, after He _____ the work of redemption, He would again share the glory of the Father.

2. Let Me Provide _____ for Mankind. 17:2-4

According to verse 2, Jesus has authority to give _____ life. Eternal life is not based on what you do, but on _____ you know. John 6:37 shows that salvation involves both divine election and _____ responsibility.

3. Let Me Enjoy the _____ of Heaven. 17:5

Jesus looked forward to the time when His _____ glory would be restored. In John 17, Jesus turns from His finished work on earth to His _____ work in heaven (Hebrews 7:25).

Heavenly Perfect Eternal Disciples Redemption Arrested
Prayer Timetable Salvation Applies Real Future Human
Finish One Himself Completed Who Glory Requests

“Jesus Prays for Himself”
John 17:1-5

One of the top priorities in the life of Jesus was _____. You might call this the “_____ Lord’s Prayer.” It was given on the night Jesus was _____, somewhere between the Upper Room and the Garden of Gethsemane.

This prayer is significant for 4 reasons. 1) Because of the _____ who prayed it. 2) Because of the occasion that demanded it. 3) Because of the _____ it makes. 4) Because it still _____ today.

This prayer can be divided in 3 sections. Jesus prays for Himself, for His _____, and for us. When Jesus prays for _____, He makes 3 requests:

1. Let Me _____ the Work of Redemption. 17:1

The “time” (or hour) Jesus mentions is the time in which He would accomplish _____. Jesus lived His life according to a divine _____. We need to remember that God’s timing is always _____. Jesus was looking forward to the hour, because He knew that, after He _____ the work of redemption, He would again share the glory of the Father.

2. Let Me Provide _____ for Mankind. 17:2-4

According to verse 2, Jesus has authority to give _____ life. Eternal life is not based on what you do, but on _____ you know. John 6:37 shows that salvation involves both divine election and _____ responsibility.

3. Let Me Enjoy the _____ of Heaven. 17:5

Jesus looked forward to the time when His _____ glory would be restored. In John 17, Jesus turns from His finished work on earth to His _____ work in heaven (Hebrews 7:25).

Heavenly Perfect Eternal Disciples Redemption Arrested
Prayer Timetable Salvation Applies Real Future Human
Finish One Himself Completed Who Glory Requests