

“I Am Committed to Serve the Lord”
Matthew 20:1-16

In Matthew 20, Jesus shares the parable of the _____ in the vineyard. He compares God’s call to _____ with the invitation of a farmer to come work in his _____.

1. The _____ to the Workers. 20:1-7

In this parable, the landowner represents _____. The workers are those who _____ him and serve in his vineyard.

- A. God Searches for _____ Workers. 20:1
- B. God Pays a _____ Wage. 20:2
- C. God Expects His Servants to _____. 20:2
- D. God _____ Stops Looking for Workers. 20:3-7

2. The _____ of the Workers. 20:8-10

Those who worked just one _____ received a full day’s wages. The workers who started _____ in the morning were given exactly what the landowner _____ them – 1 denarius.

3. The _____ with the Workers. 20:11-16

The early morning workers resented the fact that they worked for _____ hours and received the same pay as those who only worked _____ hour.

The denarius in this story represents _____ life. God offers the _____ eternal life to anyone who agrees to work in His vineyard, no matter what hour of the day they come. This parable reminds us – there is only one way to enter _____ and that is by the _____ of God.

Know Vineyard Early Never Grace Hour Faithful
Eternal God Payment Heaven Workers Promise 12
Promised 1 Fair Problem Salvation Work Same

“I Am Committed to Serve the Lord”
Matthew 20:1-16

In Matthew 20, Jesus shares the parable of the _____ in the vineyard. He compares God’s call to _____ with the invitation of a farmer to come work in his _____.

1. The _____ to the Workers. 20:1-7

In this parable, the landowner represents _____. The workers are those who _____ him and serve in his vineyard.

- A. God Searches for _____ Workers. 20:1
- B. God Pays a _____ Wage. 20:2
- C. God Expects His Servants to _____. 20:2
- D. God _____ Stops Looking for Workers. 20:3-7

2. The _____ of the Workers. 20:8-10

Those who worked just one _____ received a full day’s wages. The workers who started _____ in the morning were given exactly what the landowner _____ them – 1 denarius.

3. The _____ with the Workers. 20:11-16

The early morning workers resented the fact that they worked for _____ hours and received the same pay as those who only worked _____ hour.

The denarius in this story represents _____ life. God offers the _____ eternal life to anyone who agrees to work in His vineyard, no matter what hour of the day they come. This parable reminds us – there is only one way to enter _____ and that is by the _____ of God.

Know Vineyard Early Never Grace Hour Faithful
Eternal God Payment Heaven Workers Promise 12
Promised 1 Fair Problem Salvation Work Same