

"The Apostle Matthew"
Matthew 9:9-13

The name Matthew means _____ of God. Matthew is also called _____, which describes his _____ life.

The Bible points out 4 important facts concerning Matthew.

1. His _____. Matt 9:9, Mark 2:13-14, Luke 5:27

Matthew was a Jew hired by the _____ government to collect _____ from fellow Jews. Like many today, Matthew measured success by how much _____ he had.

2. His _____. Matthew 9:9, Mark 2:14

Matthew had been working for the _____, now he was called to serve the King of Kings.

A. The _____ of Salvation.

B. The _____ of Salvation.

C. The _____ of Salvation.

3. His _____. Matthew 9:10-13, Mark 2:15-17

Matthew gave a _____ in his home for publicans and sinners and invited _____ as honored guest.

4. His _____.

Though we have no record of Matthew's _____ words, we do have record of his _____ words. The Gospel of Matthew was written to prove that Jesus was the _____.

A 5th century church historian says Matthew became a missionary to _____ and was martyred. His remains are said to have been buried in _____.

Grace Occupation Gift Italy Spoken Appreciation Power
Ethiopia Taxes Messiah Simplicity Levi King Jesus
Written Feast Past Dedication Roman Salvation Money

"The Apostle Matthew"
Matthew 9:9-13

The name Matthew means _____ of God. Matthew is also called _____, which describes his _____ life.

The Bible points out 4 important facts concerning Matthew.

1. His _____. Matt 9:9, Mark 2:13-14, Luke 5:27

Matthew was a Jew hired by the _____ government to collect _____ from fellow Jews. Like many today, Matthew measured success by how much _____ he had.

2. His _____. Matthew 9:9, Mark 2:14

Matthew had been working for the _____, now he was called to serve the King of Kings.

A. The _____ of Salvation.

B. The _____ of Salvation.

C. The _____ of Salvation.

3. His _____. Matthew 9:10-13, Mark 2:15-17

Matthew gave a _____ in his home for publicans and sinners and invited _____ as honored guest.

4. His _____.

Though we have no record of Matthew's _____ words, we do have record of his _____ words. The Gospel of Matthew was written to prove that Jesus was the _____.

A 5th century church historian says Matthew became a missionary to _____ and was martyred. His remains are said to have been buried in _____.

Grace Occupation Gift Italy Spoken Appreciation Power
Ethiopia Taxes Messiah Simplicity Levi King Jesus
Written Feast Past Dedication Roman Salvation Money