

“What You Meant for Evil, God Meant For Good”

Genesis 50:15-21

The life of Joseph teaches 4 important lessons:

- 1) Life is Not _____.
- 2) God’s Timing is _____.
- 3) God _____ Your Circumstances.
- 4) We Must _____ Those Who Mistreat Us.

There are 4 evidences you have _____ forgiven those who mistreat you.

1. You Refuse to Seek _____ . Genesis 50:15-19

Joseph’s brothers felt _____ about a sin Joseph had forgiven 17 years earlier. They assumed that _____ still planned to take revenge on them. In Romans 12:19-21, God _____ us not to take revenge on those who hurt us. Instead, we are to _____ them over to God, and trust God to _____ with them.

2. You Acknowledge God’s _____ in Your Circumstances. Gen 50:20

God is able to use even the bad things people do to _____ something good. God orchestrated the _____ of Joseph’s life so that millions of lives would be _____.

3. You _____ to Forgive Them. Genesis 50:21

When you offer total forgiveness to someone, you do not _____ your mind about it. When God forgives you, He forgives _____ (Eph 4:32).

4. You Want God to _____ Them Not Punish Them. Genesis 50:21

If someone is _____ to you, don’t be mean in return. Instead be _____ to them (Romans 12:20-21).
