

“The Parable of the Good Samaritan”

Luke 10:25-37

The story begins with a _____ who asks Jesus a question. This man was not really seeking information, he was trying to _____ Jesus. The lawyer thought he could earn his way to _____ by good works. Jesus made it clear that eternal life is not the result of _____ works, it's the result of _____ Him as the Messiah (John 5:24, John 11:25).

In the Parable of the Good Samaritan Jesus explains that a neighbor is anybody who needs your _____.

1. The _____. 10:30

The _____ from Jerusalem to Jericho was very dangerous because it was very narrow and _____ and because it provided numerous places for robbers to _____.

2. The _____. 10:30-32

A. The _____. 10:30

B. The _____. 10:31 Sins of commission are the _____ things we do that are forbidden. Sins of omission are the good things we _____ to do (James 4:17).

C. The _____. 10:32 Before we judge the priest and Levite too harshly, we must ask _____, “What would I have _____ if I were in their situation?”

3. The _____. 10:33-35

The Jews _____ the Samaritans and considered them religiously _____ (John 8:48). The Samaritan was _____ in his generosity. He made an extraordinary sacrifice for someone he didn't even _____.

Not only does this parable teach us to be more _____ toward those in need, it also reminds us that salvation can only be found by _____ through faith in Jesus (Ephesians 2:8-9).

Steep Know Ourselves Neglect Villains Levite Unclean Hero
Lawyer Hide Bad Trusting Lavish Done Heaven Grace
Victim Robbers Good Help Loving Trick Road Priest Hated