

“God Has a Purpose in Your Problems”
Philippians 1:12-20

Most of us have no trouble rejoicing as long as our _____ are good. In spite of difficult circumstances, Paul maintained a _____ attitude. Paul was able to rejoice in hard times because he knew God was at _____ in the midst of his problems.

He explains how his time in prison resulted in 3 great _____.

1. An Opportunity for the Gospel to be _____. 12-13

Paul didn't dwell on the _____ things that happened to him. His primary concern was that the _____ be proclaimed and that _____ be exalted.

2. An Opportunity for Christians to be _____. 14-18

The way you _____ to your circumstances will either encourage or discourage other believers. Some _____ Christians in Rome were encouraged when they saw the _____ of Paul.

3. An Opportunity for Jesus to be _____. 19-20

Paul said, “I want my life to _____ the Lord Jesus Christ.” There are 2 ways to magnify something. One way is with a _____, which takes what is _____ and makes it large. Another way to magnify things is with a _____, which takes what is _____ and brings it near.

There is no other time when Christ is so _____ as when He is _____ with you in times of suffering and sorrow.

Exalted Blessings Conspicuous Work Bad Telescope Magnify
Encouraged Microscope Boldness Walking Extended Joyful
Circumstances Timid Christ Small Respond Gospel Distant

“God Has a Purpose in Your Problems”
Philippians 1:12-20

Most of us have no trouble rejoicing as long as our _____ are good. In spite of difficult circumstances, Paul maintained a _____ attitude. Paul was able to rejoice in hard times because he knew God was at _____ in the midst of his problems.

He explains how his time in prison resulted in 3 great _____.

1. An Opportunity for the Gospel to be _____. 12-13

Paul didn't dwell on the _____ things that happened to him. His primary concern was that the _____ be proclaimed and that _____ be exalted.

2. An Opportunity for Christians to be _____. 14-18

The way you _____ to your circumstances will either encourage or discourage other believers. Some _____ Christians in Rome were encouraged when they saw the _____ of Paul.

3. An Opportunity for Jesus to be _____. 19-20

Paul said, “I want my life to _____ the Lord Jesus Christ.” There are 2 ways to magnify something. One way is with a _____, which takes what is _____ and makes it large. Another way to magnify things is with a _____, which takes what is _____ and brings it near.

There is no other time when Christ is so _____ as when He is _____ with you in times of suffering and sorrow.

Exalted Blessings Conspicuous Work Bad Telescope Magnify
Encouraged Microscope Boldness Walking Extended Joyful
Circumstances Timid Christ Small Respond Gospel Distant