

“Rejoice in the Lord Always”
Philippians 4:4

Even though the book of Philippians has only 4 _____, Paul uses the word _____ or rejoice at least _____ times (1:18, 1:26, 2:17, 2:18, 3:1, 4:4). The Christian life is a _____ life.

Philippians 4:4 answers 3 _____ that show how you and I can experience that joy.

1. _____ Should I Rejoice? 4:4

The word “rejoice” is an imperative which means it is a _____.

A. Because You Have a Great _____.

B. Because You Are Part of a Great _____. Most of the Old Testament references to praise describe a group of _____ praising God _____ (Psalm 34:3, 118:24, 134:2, 150:1).

2. _____ Can I Rejoice? 4:4

Paul didn’t _____ because of his circumstances, but because he had a personal _____ with Jesus. According to John 15:11, _____ has joy and He wants to _____ it with us.

3. _____ Should I Rejoice? 4:4

A. All Through the _____. Psalm 119:164

B. All Through Your _____. 1 Thessalonians 5:18

When Paul _____ this verse, he was dealing with difficult circumstances and difficult _____ (Phil 1:16-18).

“Rejoice in the Lord Always”
Philippians 4:4

Even though the book of Philippians has only 4 _____, Paul uses the word _____ or rejoice at least _____ times (1:18, 1:26, 2:17, 2:18, 3:1, 4:4). The Christian life is a _____ life.

Philippians 4:4 answers 3 _____ that show how you and I can experience that joy.

1. _____ Should I Rejoice? 4:4

The word “rejoice” is an imperative which means it is a _____.

A. Because You Have a Great _____.

B. Because You Are Part of a Great _____. Most of the Old Testament references to praise describe a group of _____ praising God _____ (Psalm 34:3, 118:24, 134:2, 150:1).

2. _____ Can I Rejoice? 4:4

Paul didn’t _____ because of his circumstances, but because he had a personal _____ with Jesus. According to John 15:11, _____ has joy and He wants to _____ it with us.

3. _____ Should I Rejoice? 4:4

A. All Through the _____. Psalm 119:164

B. All Through Your _____. 1 Thessalonians 5:18

When Paul _____ this verse, he was dealing with difficult circumstances and difficult _____ (Phil 1:16-18).