

“Because of the Resurrection”

1 Corinthians 15:29-34

1 Corinthians was written to answer _____ sent to Paul from the members of the church. It is like a spiritual “Dear _____” column. Some in the church actually _____ the resurrection (1 Cor 15:12). As we come to 1 Cor 15:29, Paul explains how the resurrection of Jesus should affect our _____ lives.

1. I’m Motivated to _____ the Lost. 15:29

This verse has been used to support many _____ and heretical doctrines. _____ believe you can get baptized for a deceased relative and give them another opportunity to be _____.

The _____ to understanding this verse is the way we translate the word “_____.” The best solution is to translate it “_____ of.”

Because Jesus rose from the dead, we have a greater motivation to _____ our faith.

2. I’m Motivated to _____ My Life in Service. 15:30—32

Paul was willing to _____ for Christ because he knew the _____ of his ministry would last for _____. He says, “since there is _____ after death, I am motivated to risk my life to win others to Him.”

3. I’m Motivated to _____ Temptation. 15:33-34

One reason we fall into sin is because of the _____ we hang out with. We are motivated to live a holy life because we know we will see _____ one day and we don’t want to be _____ of ourselves when we stand before Him.

Reach Abby People Life Strange Jesus Share
Risk Suffer Everyday Because Key Resist
Denied Results Mormons Ashamed For Eternity

“Because of the Resurrection”

1 Corinthians 15:29-34

1 Corinthians was written to answer _____ sent to Paul from the members of the church. It is like a spiritual “Dear _____” column. Some in the church actually _____ the resurrection (1 Cor 15:12). As we come to 1 Cor 15:29, Paul explains how the resurrection of Jesus should affect our _____ lives.

1. I’m Motivated to _____ the Lost. 15:29

This verse has been used to support many _____ and heretical doctrines. _____ believe you can get baptized for a deceased relative and give them another opportunity to be _____.

The _____ to understanding this verse is the way we translate the word “_____.” The best solution is to translate it “_____ of.”

Because Jesus rose from the dead, we have a greater motivation to _____ our faith.

2. I’m Motivated to _____ My Life in Service. 15:30—32

Paul was willing to _____ for Christ because he knew the _____ of his ministry would last for _____. He says, “since there is _____ after death, I am motivated to risk my life to win others to Him.”

3. I’m Motivated to _____ Temptation. 15:33-34

One reason we fall into sin is because of the _____ we hang out with. We are motivated to live a holy life because we know we will see _____ one day and we don’t want to be _____ of ourselves when we stand before Him.

Reach Abby People Life Strange Jesus Share
Risk Suffer Everyday Because Key Resist
Denied Results Mormons Ashamed For Eternity