

“The Remedy for Rejection”

Psalm 9:9-10

Christian counselor June Hunt says, “The most _____ wound you can experience is rejection by a loved one. Even _____ itself does not pierce as deeply as knowing you have been abandoned, forsaken, or rejected.”

The word reject means “to dismiss as _____, inappropriate, or not to one’s taste.” To reject someone is to say, “You’re not _____ enough. You are _____ and worthless. I refuse to accept you or acknowledge you.”

The only remedy for rejection is to know that somebody does _____ you unconditionally and _____ you eternally.

1. The _____ of Rejection.

- A. Your _____. Psalm 27:10
- B. Your _____. 1 Peter 4:3-4
- C. Your _____. 1 Corinthians 7:12-13, 15
- D. Your _____. Psalm 88:13-14
- E. Your Own _____. Galatians 6:7-8

2. The _____ of Rejection.

- A. You Live to _____ Others. 1 Thessalonians 2:4
- B. You Feel _____.
- C. You Allow Rejection to Produce Other _____.

3. The _____ For Rejection.

- A. Recognize You Have a _____. 2 Corinthians 10:5
- B. Remember the True _____ of Acceptance. Deut 31:8
- C. Replace Your Negatives With _____. Psalm 119:71

Please Cure Parents Accept Source Behavior Good Death
Consequences Problem Sins Inadequate Spouse Causes Painful
Circumstances Love Insecure Positives Useless Positives Friends