

“The Parable of the Hidden Treasure”
Matthew 13:44

Matthew 13:44 tells the story of a man who found a priceless treasure buried in a _____. We must interpret this parable in the _____ of the verses that surround it.

In this parable, the field represents the _____ (Mt 13:38), the man represents _____ (Mt 13:37), and the treasure represents the nation of _____. The 12 disciples understood the parable because all of them were _____.

Let’s notice 3 things that happen to the treasure in this parable.

1. The Treasure Was _____.

The Lord sought and found Israel at a time when they were _____ in the world. The Jews were hidden as slaves in _____ and were taken as captives to _____.

The Jews were never significant in the eyes of the world, but they were always _____ in the sight of God.

2. The Treasure Was _____.

Jesus offered Himself to the Jews as their Messiah, but most of them _____ Him. About 30 years after the death of Jesus, the Jews rebelled against the _____ Empire and were driven out of Palestine and _____ around the world.

3. The Treasure Was _____.

Though the Jews rejected Jesus, He gave everything to _____ their salvation (1 Pet 1:18-19). In the last days, many Jews will trust in Jesus as _____. When Jesus _____ to earth after the Tribulation, He will _____ the treasure He purchased 2,000 years ago.

Recovered Babylon Returns Field Precious Jews Hidden
Context Savior World Rejected Egypt Purchase Jesus
Roman Covered Israel Redeem Discovered Scattered

“The Parable of the Hidden Treasure”
Matthew 13:44

Matthew 13:44 tells the story of a man who found a priceless treasure buried in a _____. We must interpret this parable in the _____ of the verses that surround it.

In this parable, the field represents the _____ (Mt 13:38), the man represents _____ (Mt 13:37), and the treasure represents the nation of _____. The 12 disciples understood the parable because all of them were _____.

Let’s notice 3 things that happen to the treasure in this parable.

1. The Treasure Was _____.

The Lord sought and found Israel at a time when they were _____ in the world. The Jews were hidden as slaves in _____ and were taken as captives to _____.

The Jews were never significant in the eyes of the world, but they were always _____ in the sight of God.

2. The Treasure Was _____.

Jesus offered Himself to the Jews as their Messiah, but most of them _____ Him. About 30 years after the death of Jesus, the Jews rebelled against the _____ Empire and were driven out of Palestine and _____ around the world.

3. The Treasure Was _____.

Though the Jews rejected Jesus, He gave everything to _____ their salvation (1 Pet 1:18-19). In the last days, many Jews will trust in Jesus as _____. When Jesus _____ to earth after the Tribulation, He will _____ the treasure He purchased 2,000 years ago.

Recovered Babylon Returns Field Precious Jews Hidden
Context Savior World Rejected Egypt Purchase Jesus
Roman Covered Israel Redeem Discovered Scattered