

“The Parable of the Wheat and the Weeds”
Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43

There are some church members who resemble a _____ Rolex watch. They look like a genuine believer on the _____,
but if you could look _____ their heart, you would discover that they are a _____.

The parable of the Wheat and the Weeds reminds us that not everybody who claims to be a _____ is truly _____.

1. Two Different _____ . 13:24-25, 36-39

Jesus says the weeds are “sons of the _____ one” (13:38) and the one who planted them is “the _____” (Mt 13:36-39). Jesus believed that Satan is _____ and is constantly at work (1 Pet 5:8-9).

Satan planted weeds while everyone was _____. We have churches full of weeds because we are asleep on the _____.

2. Two Different _____ . 13:26-29

The crop planted by the enemy was a weed that looks just like
_____. At harvest time, even a child can tell them apart by looking at their _____ (Mt 7:15-16). There are 2 reasons it is impossible to separate wheat and weeds before judgment day:

- A. It is _____ to Tell the Two Apart.
- B. Trying to Separate Them _____ the True Wheat.

3. Two Different _____ . 13:30, 36-43

The dangerous thing about being a weed is that you may _____ yourself into thinking you are actually wheat. There is one difference between weeds & people – weeds can never _____ into wheat. But God can _____ a weed (a moral person) and transform them into wheat (a genuine believer).
