

"All Things Work Together for Good"

Romans 8:28

Some people have the mistaken idea that, once you become a Christian, you will no longer face _____. How do we reconcile the fact that God _____ us, yet allows _____ things to happen to us?

In Romans 8:28 God promises to bring something _____ out of our troubles.

1. The _____ of the Promise.

Paul knew the promises of God were _____ because he put them to the _____ in his own life. We know by faith that God will work things out even though we may not _____ how or why He does it.

2. The _____ of the Promise.

Not everything that _____ in life is good; but God is able to take the _____ of life and make something good out of them. Many bad experiences have a way of _____ out for good.

3. The _____ of the Promise.

This promise is not for _____. It is limited to those who _____ God and desire to do His _____.

Whatever tragedy may have happened in your life, God can somehow _____ it for good. God can take the thing that caused you _____ and use it to make you stronger and make you a _____ to others.
